

Name: _____

Class: _____

- Two related sentences can be joined with a comma and a conjunction such as and, or, or but.
- Separated: Sue has a dog. Tim has a cat.
- Joined: Sue has a dog, and Tim has a cat.

Combine each pair of sentences. Use a comma and the word and, or, or but.

1. I like pizza. My mother likes pasta.

2. Lions eat meat. Birds like to eat seeds and insects.

3. Most birds can sing. Some birds can learn words.

4. Ahmad likes to play football. He likes to play basketball.

5. A small bird can sit on your finger. It can even ride on your shoulder.

Answer Key

1. I like pizza, but my mother likes pasta.
2. Lions eat meat, but birds like to eat seeds and insects.
3. Most birds can sing, and some birds can learn words.
4. Ahmad likes to play football, and he likes to play basketball.
5. A small bird can sit on your finger, and it can even ride on your shoulder.

