

Name: _____

Class: _____

- Every sentence has two parts.
- Every sentence has a subject and a predicate.
- The subject of a sentence is whom or what the sentence is about.
- The subject can be one word or more than one word. The buildings are tall. The office buildings are tall.
- The predicate of a sentence tells what the subject does or is.
- The predicate can be one word or more than one word.
- Sentence: The penguins walked across the snow.
- Predicate: walked across the snow.

Read each sentence. Draw a line between subject and predicate. Underline the subject once and the predicate twice.

1. The deer runs through the park.
2. Trees lose their leaves.
3. Children play on the playground.
4. The bikes are on the grass.
5. The bus is crowded in the winter.
6. Penguins live in cold climates.
7. A layer of fat keeps penguins warm.
8. Penguins shed their feathers.
9. These big birds grow new feathers.
10. Penguins gather in large groups.

 Answer Key

1. The deer / runs through the park.
2. Trees / lose their leaves.
3. Children / play on the playground.
4. The bikes / are on the grass.
5. The bus / is crowded in the winter.
6. Penguins / live in cold climates.
7. A layer of fat / keeps penguins warm.
8. Penguins / shed their feathers.
9. These big birds / grow new feathers.
10. Penguins / gather in large groups.

